

for My DEMONS

For My Demons was born from an idea of Gabriele Palmieri (voice), which began to take shape after his separation from Neverdream. The first full length was released in 2017 via Revalve Records, entitled - Close To The Shade - The album with its elegant dark Rock / metal with prog undertones received excellent feedback from the media and listeners. After a change of Lineup, the band arrives at the current formation that from 2018 to 2019 performs a series of concerts to promote the album. The most important is certainly the opening act to the masters of melodic death dark, the Italians NOVEMBRE. In 2020 the songwriting phase of the new album begins. This time it will be a concept album that will revisit the tragedy of Othello. The Moor of Venice, the story of his descent into hell and the confrontation with Jago and Desdemona. A current and strong denunciation of invisible violence against women, which over the centuries, albeit disguised, has never found an end. The maturation of the band is evident, the sounds and the identity are more defined and directed towards a melodic and exciting progressive dark metal. the new album is titled INVISIBLE, the six tracks contained within it will be released in digital format during 2021. The Title track INVISIBLE was released on the digital market on January 22nd, while the release of the second single CANDLELIGHT is scheduled for April 16th. A vinyl will be released that will collect all the tracks in the coming winter.
