

NEW HORIZONS

New Horizons born in November 2013, after a period of studies and line-up instability. With the arrival of Federico Viviani (drums, Rusty Nails, Sulfur), then, the musical project turned on by Luca Guidi (keyboards, Fall of Darkness), Giacomo Froli (solo guitar), Nicola Giannini (rythmic guitar) and Claudio Froli, began to take shape and finding the right direction. In April 2014. was released the demo 'The Trail of Shadows' at Borderline (Pisa), and at the end of a period of meticulous recruiting, the band completed the line-up with the entrance of Oscar Nini (vocals). The following year, the band worked hard to perfect instrumental sheets and to define lyrics and vocal lines. in October 2015 New Horizons plyaed at the prestigious Blitz (Cascina, PI) in order to present a foretaste of the future album. In March 2016, the recordings of 'Inner Dislocation' took place at Magnitudo Studios of Ghezzano (Pisa). In 2017 the mixing was finished at Seven7Studio of Calenzano (Florence), and the work was definitively completed with the mastering at Domination Studio (San Marino) of Simone Mularoni (guitarist of DGM). Among the many concerts in Tuscany, it's worth mentioning the concert at Cycle Club in Calenzano (FI) on 15 April 2015, opening to DGM (masters of italian prog-power metal).
